DATA PROTECTION INFORMATION OF PORSCHE LIFESTYLE GMBH & CO. KG

I. GENERAL INFORMATION

1. CONTROLLER

We, Porsche Lifestyle GmbH & Co. KG, take the protection of your personal data and the legal obligations related to this protection very seriously. The legal requirements require comprehensive transparency regarding the processing of personal data. Processing will only be transparent to you as the data subject if you are adequately informed about its purpose, type, and scope.

Our data protection information therefore explains in detail which personal data we process when you use our online shop (in Section II) and in the other cases described here (in Section III and following).

The controller as defined by the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) is

Porsche Lifestyle GmbH & Co. KG
Grönerstraße 5
71636 Ludwigsburg
Germany
Tel.: +49(0)711/911 12911
Email: contact@porsche-design.com

Hereinafter referred to as 'controller' or 'we'.

You can reach the Data Protection Officer at:

Porsche Lifestyle GmbH & Co. KG
- Data Protection Officer -
Grönerstraße 5
71636 Ludwigsburg
Germany
Email: datenschutzbeauftragter@porsche-design.de

Please note that links on our website may take you to other websites that are not operated by us, but by third parties. Such links are either clearly marked or recognisable by a change in the address line of your browser. We are not responsible for compliance with data protection regulations and the secure handling of your personal data on websites operated by third parties.

When using the online shop, the data protection information of Porsche Sales & Marketplace GmbH, which operates the marketplace on which our online shop is located, also applies. You can access this data protection information at any time at <https://shop.porsche.com> at the bottom of the page. In addition, cookies and similar technologies are used when using the online shop. For details, please refer to the Cookie Policy, which you can access at any time at <https://www.porsche.com/international/cookie-policy/>.

2. DEFINITIONS

The data protection information uses the terms of the GDPR legal text. The definitions (Article 4 GDPR) can be found, for example, at <https://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/?uri=CELEX:32016R0679>.

When we list the categories of processed data below, we are specifically referring to the following data: master data (e.g., names, addresses, birth dates), contact data (e.g., email addresses, phone numbers, messaging services), content data (e.g., text entries, photographs, videos, document/file contents), contract data (e.g., subject matter of the contract, duration, customer category), payment data (e.g., bank details, payment history, use of other payment service providers), usage data (e.g., browsing history on our website, use of specific content, access times, contact or order history), connection data (e.g., device information, IP addresses, URL referrers), and location data (e.g., GPS data, IP geolocation, access points).

3. STORAGE DURATION

The personal data will be deleted as soon as the purpose of the processing no longer applies or a prescribed storage period expires, unless there is a need to further store the personal data for the conclusion or fulfilment of a contract. If we need to provide information about the storage period of cookies and similar technologies, you will find the information in the Cookie Policy (see above).

4. AUTOMATED DECISIONS IN INDIVIDUAL CASES, INCLUDING PROFILING

Automated decisions in individual cases, including profiling, are not made.

5. RIGHTS OF DATA SUBJECTS

As a data subject, you have the right to obtain information under Article 15 of the GDPR, the right to correction under Article 16 of the GDPR, the right to deletion under Article 17 of the GDPR, the right to restrict processing under Article 18 of the GDPR, and the right to data portability under Article 20 of the GDPR. The right to information and the right to deletion are restricted by Sections 34 and 35 of the Federal Data Protection Act (BDSG). You have the right to file a complaint with a data protection supervisory authority (Article 77 of the GDPR in conjunction with Section 19 of the Federal Data Protection Act (BDSG))

The data protection supervisory authority responsible for us is:

The State Commissioner for Data Protection and Freedom of Information Baden-Württemberg
Königstraße 10a
70173 Stuttgart, Germany

However, you are free to file a complaint with another data protection supervisory authority.

6. NOTIFICATION OBLIGATIONS OF THE CONTROLLER

We will notify all recipients who have received your personal data of any corrections or deletions of your personal data, or any restrictions on processing pursuant to Articles 16, 17(1) and 18 of the GDPR, unless such notification is impossible or requires disproportionate effort. We will inform you about the recipients if you request this information.

7. OBLIGATION TO PROVIDE

Unless stated otherwise in the following details regarding the legal grounds, you are not required to provide personal data. However, in the cases of Article 6(1) sentence 1 letter b of the GDPR, the personal data is necessary for fulfilling a contract or for the conclusion of a contract. If you do not provide the personal data concerned, the fulfilment or conclusion of the contract is not possible. If you do not provide the data in the cases of Article 6(1) sentence 1 letter a or letter f of the GDPR, the use of the respective service is not possible.

8. RIGHT TO OBJECT

You have the right to object at any time to the processing of your personal data based on Article 6(1) sentence 1 letter f of the GDPR for reasons relating to your particular situation; this also applies to profiling based on these provisions. If personal data is processed for direct marketing purposes, you have the right to object at any time to the processing of personal data concerning you for the purposes of such advertising; this also applies to profiling insofar as it is related to such direct marketing. The objection can be made in any form and should be addressed to our contact details stated above.

9. REVOCATION OF CONSENT

You have the right, according to Article 7(3) sentence 1 of the GDPR, to withdraw your consent at any time with effect for the future. This does not affect the legality of the processing carried out on the basis of the consent until the revocation. Upon your revocation, we will delete the personal data processed on the basis of your consent if there is no other legal basis for their processing. The revocation can be made in any form and should be addressed to our contact details stated above.

You can withdraw certain consent(s) to the use of cookies and similar technologies directly via the Cookie Consent Tool; all information on this can be found in the Cookie Policy (see above). Please note that you must do this on every device with which you have visited our website and consented to data processing.

10. OBLIGATION TO TRANSFER PERSONAL DATA TO PUBLIC AUTHORITIES, AGENCY OR OTHER BODY

We are required by law to disclose personal information to public authorities, agencies or other bodies when they request such disclosure within the scope of their legal authority and in accordance with applicable law. There are also situations where our employees are required by law to disclose personal information to such bodies, for example, to prevent serious crime. Data will only be disclosed or transferred if there is a request for information or an obligation to do so, and if the legal requirements are met. You will be informed of any such disclosure to the extent permitted by law and as long as such disclosure does not jeopardize the performance of official duties.
